“We needed a solution to provide technology training to busy educators,” said Tracy Arrington-Wesson from the Office of Technology Services – eLearning.

COMBINING CUSTOMGUIDE ONLINE LEARNING AND COURSEWARE

When used in tandem, CustomGuide’s online learning and courseware provide a complete learning experience that has the flexibility to fit into busy schedules of teachers.

“The participants are able to benefit from the resources after a face-to-face class by reviewing the interactive tutorial in areas that were not mastered during class time,” Arrington-Wesson said.

INTERACTIVITY MAKES LEARNING INTERESTING

One of the most positive features of the training is the interactivity: it helps students learn the skills taught in each lesson, and it is entertaining.

“The overall experience of CustomGuide has been very enjoyable,” Arrington-Wesson said. “I would describe CustomGuide as a fun, interactive way to learn technology skills.”
